

THOMAS J. KAUFMANN

SUMMARY OF QUALIFICATIONS:

- 12 years teaching experience at the college level
- 8 years teaching experience at the high school level
- 10 years experience working for corporate construction company
- 6 years experience as construction foreman

TEACHING EXPERIENCE:

University Wisconsin Stout (2007-present)

Senior Lecturer- School of Science, Technology, Engineering and Management

- Material Removal and Forming Processes
- Machining Metal Forming Processes
- Materials and Manufacturing

Prescott High School (2000-2007)

Technology Education Teacher

- Construction Technology
- Beginning, Intermediate and Advanced Woods,
- Metal forming, Welding, Advanced Welding,

Waupun High School (1999-2000)

Building Trades Instructor

- Supervision and education of high school seniors in the construction of 2800 sq ft home.
- Introduction to Residential Construction

CONSTRUCTION EXPERIENCE:

Morton Buildings, Inc. (1989-1998)

Foreman (1993-1998)

- Supervision and training of personnel in the construction of commercial/agricultural buildings.
- Safety Management

Assistant Foreman (1990-1993)

Construction Crew Member (1989-1990)

EDUCATION:

University of Wisconsin-Stout (2003)

Master of Science degree in Technology Education

University of Wisconsin - River Falls (1987)

Bachelor of Science degree in History

Minor concentration in Cartography